Seeing that the fee is only £1 a year (usually payable on your first visit) no one complains as the prices of drinks are noticeably less than all the local hostelryes. Club Nights are run in two parts. Part1 from 8 - 9pm: an 'early bird' practice/workshop session where members bring along any instrument, and exchange advice with mutual support from other musicians. Part2 from 9 - 11-30pm is the Folk Club which is run in a sing/play-a-round format where everyone is encouraged to contribute, and of course 'show off' their new skills, or even accompany the more adventuress singers
